Akiba's trip undead undressed ending guide

Home » Guide » Akiba's Travel Undead and Undress: A walk-through guide for all endings really hard to get the character path Arn, you need to say certain things like a regular VN to get on that route. Read on at your own risk so there will be spoilers here! Practice Guide for All Endings Using this guide as a guide, choose the one character you like and answer exactly what you put here to get her ending, and you need to make sure you don't respond to the same things. Lin and Zion are easy to mess up, so if you answer too much with caution, you can push them into the path of Shizuku or Toko. And before anyone asks, no Kati has a path, cute big maid girl for us. The route of Shizuku Tokikazeshizuku is easily accessible in the second. When you get a choice about what to answer with these options when you see them. I'll go with Shizuku. I'm with Shizuku. You and I can do it. I know we can do it. Are you... That's ok? That cosplay will suit Shizuku well. They look amazing for all three. Besides Shizuku, you are a dear friend to all of us. I can trust my help. What are the other choices? We have to fight. For sure! I enjoyed it too. You have to be there for Shizuku! Never mind me. It hurts? Protect Shizuku with my life! The two of us have nothing to fear together, Shizuku! The route of Toko Buysakatoko is the easiest to get because he is a childhood friend. When you get a choice about what to answer with these options when you see them. I'm going with Toko. I think Toko has the right ideas. Save Lynn, of course! Thanks. It will be of great help. You ask me on a date? Thanks, I appreciate it. We'll let you know. It is my pleasure! I think Toko can handle it well. I'll show her what two childhood friends can do! ... Thanks, Toko. We will. Because it's you and your age. We did it together. Since the line between Shizuku and Toka is introduced after it nearly started, Si-on Lee is the third most difficult route. When you get a choice about what to answer with these options when you see them. Mr. Gassy is told to do more than drugs. Maybe we should ask their boss... Baby like you can get away with anything. I believe you, Mr. Furnituresai. It doesn't matter because we don't see that happening! A serious danger is my name! I believe you, Mr. Gass. I promised Zion to continue. Lynn Tokikazeni's route is the hardest route because it starts about 25% throughout the game. When you get a choice about what to answer with these options when you see them. We need glowsticks and fans, statistica! Wait! We strike after the concert. No longer. Well, we were interrupting her concert... Brb. You have to sell her to Lynn's awesomeness. I forgot to get her autograph. Come Tell him to make Mr. Gassy do more than drugs. It hurts? My heart overflows with four words. Don't spoil Lynn's Elite Guard! Uh, because I'm in your fan club? Two?! You treat your fans pretty well, huh? I think cuteness suits you well. No, no, it looks totally fantastic on you! Are you... Worried about me?! I'll protect you for your dying breath, Lynn! Let's make it to remember this show! The end of The Na/Bonus End/Nana is a bonus, you're so small towards this East Sea so you can do her end up with one of the leading women. To check your email after all the story quests, make sure you get them and do them as soon as you do it, there will be 5 Nana Quests and 1 Pop Quest to perform as Nada will give you some side quests. The name of the email is E-MER-GEN-CY*SUM-MON, E-MER-GEN-CY*MISS-SION, Order of Highest Priority. --Emergency Mission --. Hey Gouisi!, Fatal Wounds. After this you will get a final quest called Sister's Bodyguard, and while on this quest Na is talking to some of her friends, you will have to choose certain things to say so as not to fail this ending, say the following to achieve it. He's a nanna. Calm down, Nada. This sounds like one big misunderstanding. Ok, let's all calm down. This is... So beautiful. So beautiful! Sniffle and that's it! Interesting stripping!
